WABC Special Announcement

The World Business and Executive Coaching Summit
Early-Bird Pricing Ends July 15th – Register Today!

WABC is pleased to update you about the early-bird pricing deadline for The World Business and Executive Coaching Summit, to be held online July 28–August 18, 2011.

As previously announced, WABC will not only be leading a panel at the summit but is also one of the lead strategic partners for the event. The online summit will bring together the most influential group of thought-leaders from business coaching ever assembled, for the largest online event the industry has ever seen. The presenters, chosen from over 200 nominations, include some of the highest-caliber business coaching experts around.

Over 5,000 Business and Executive Coaches from 84 countries have already registered for the previously announced pre-summit series. These taster sessions have already provided many of our members with a unique opportunity to gauge the caliber of the presenters and panelists at the event and gain a remarkable collection of take-home value for the coaches, their coaching practices and their clients.

The early bird pricing for the full summit is ending July 15th—don't miss out!
